Hellidon Lakes Golf and Spa Hotel opens new al fresco dining outlet

The summer holidays are officially underway and to celebrate, Hellidon Lakes Golf & Spa Hotel in Northamptonshire have launched a new al fresco dining outlet - 'The Patio' - designed to bring a breath of fresh air to dining in the county.

Set in 220 acres of landscaped grounds complete with a championship golf course and eight lakes, Hellidon Lakes Golf and Spa Hotel is a hidden gem overlooking the counties of Warwickshire and Northamptonshire. 'The Patio', which overlooks the grounds with the rolling hills of Northamptonshire to one side and Warwickshire on the other, is open daily between 10am to 6pm serving a selection of summer salads, light bites, delicious homemade ice cream, summer classics such as PIMMS and Summer Pitchers as well as a very decadent afternoon tea.

With seating for around 60 guests and open to residents and non-residents alike, 'The Patio' is the perfect setting for a lunch out with the kids, afternoon tea with friends or for those looking to spend the full day enjoying the hotels' facilities, somewhere to grab a quick bite before a round of golf or an afternoon relaxing in the spa.

Sacha Cauwels, General Manager of Hellidon Lakes Golf & Spa Hotel commented "The idea behind 'The Patio' is to offer guests at Hellidon a new summer dining option for when the sun shines! We believe that the range of dishes we have on offer from afternoon tea, to healthy salads and decadent deserts will appeal to all ages and we look forward to welcoming both local residents and hotel guests to sample the delights!"
