With seating for over 60 guests and the option to dine al fresco should the weather be fine, 'The Gorge' is the perfect setting for an intimate meal for two, a leisurely Sunday lunch or somewhere to grab a quick bite and perhaps one of the new 'Flat White' coffees before a round of golf. Open to residents and non-residents alike, prices start from £7.50 for a main course and the restaurant is open from 9am to 9pm Monday to Thursday and from 10am to 6pm on Sundays.

Ben Bridgeman, General Manager of the Telford Hotel & Golf Resort commented "The idea behind 'The Gorge' is to offer our guests more of a resort experience by giving them a choice of dining options. They can now enjoy excellent dining in our main 1779 restaurant, pick up the phone for room service or try out the relaxed ambience of the new bistro. We believe that the range of dishes we have on offer from stone-baked build-your-own pizzas, to healthy salads and decadent deserts will appeal to all ages and we look forward to welcoming both residential guests and local people to sample the delights of the new Gorge Restaurant."
