36 reasons to make the most of our luxurious Spa

Situated in the Heart of England we are literally 'down the road' from Shakespeare's home town and merely a stone's throw from medieval Warwick Castle.

Chesford Grange itself is enchanting and steeped in history with the original house dating back to 1902 when it was a family home. With its stone entrance, red roofed turrets and black and white panelling you are beckoned into a warm and friendly welcome as soon as you walk through the doors.

Once inside we go to work on your senses, our contemporary interior designs take your stay from superb to sublime; with hand-etched glass headboards, plush chairs and zingy colour schemes.

Then there's the Spa itself, which carries on Warwick Castle's reputation for princess pampering...

Come and be wooed!
