One of a kind

The Stratford
Conferencing, meetings and events

The phoenix has risen

If you haven't seen The Stratford recently, you're in for a very pleasant surprise indeed – and that works equally well even if you've never been near the place.

A recent and substantial refurbishment has transformed this former ugly duckling into the Swan of the Avon. We're now the first rank, go-to, top of the heap venue in the area, a boutique hotel with a contemporary luxury air.

For conferences of all kinds, meetings on many matters, important interviews, think tanks, brainstorming and team-building time in our manicured half-acre grounds, what more could you ask for?

There are 6 infinitely flexible, fully air-conditioned and high-tech conference suites ready to accommodate up to 132 delegates at a time. There are highly experienced and motivated staff who know one end of a tightly-packed schedule from another. And there's the complete and undivided attention of our utterly switched on Events Manager.

We have a handy position minutes from the M40 and free parking for one hundred cars – yet we're right in the heart of Stratford-upon-Avon.

But in the final analysis, you may well pride yourself on never staying anywhere without an AA rosette award for the restaurant. We've won one for 6 years in a row – will that do?

The Stratford room layouts

Our at-a-glance guide will give you some idea of which rooms fits your audience and your event down to a T. But a brief chat with our Events Manager will make sure you've made absolutely the right choice. And if that chat is face to face here at The Stratford, so much the better. That way you get to sample the atmosphere, see the terrain and find out just how much we have to offer.
