The Westerwood Hotel & Golf Resort isn't just a wonderful location, it is also wonderfully located. That's because this superb, recently refurbished establishment with its to-die-for views to the Campsie Hills, its Championship Golf Course designed by Seve Ballesteros, its 148 delightful rooms and its seven highly versatile conference rooms with a capacity of up to 400, just happens to be situated within easy striking distance of Glasgow, Edinburgh and Stirling. 400 delighted delegates.

We love our business guests to feel they are spoilt for choice when they come to The Westerwood Hotel & Golf Resort. That's why in 2007 we decided to add, just for good measure, the superb Carrick Suite to our already impressive menu of conference rooms. This exceptional space offers a 400-delegate capacity, a highly flexible layout, ground-floor location and even its very own foyer. Which, as you might imagine, makes it the envy of almost every other venue north of the border. On top of that we can provide you with cosy meeting rooms and airy function rooms (including the Club Room with its own private bar). Not forgetting, of course, the full support of our highly experienced and bend-over-backwards enthusiastic team who will be with you every step of the way to help you plan and implement an event that will meet all your objectives.

therapists to calm your karma.

You don't need us to tell you just how much a full-on day doing business can take it out of a person. Honestly, it can be positively exhausting! Fear not, however, the contents of our lavish leisure club will soon have the batteries fully restored. Here, you will find no less than five beauty therapists whose sole mission in life it is to ease away the aches and pains of the day, while our fully equipped, hi-tech gym boasts everything you could possibly need to work up a healthy appetite for dinner. Beyond this oasis of bodily goodness lies our magnificent 18-hole Championship Golf Course, set amid stunning scenery and designed to put even the most self-assured of golfers to the test. Further afield you will find distractions aplenty – the best nightlife Scotland has to offer in Glasgow, the culture of Edinburgh City Centre and of course, if you need some retail therapy, you can browse the shops of Scotland's foremost city centres.

Whether you help yourself from the breakout area or we bring your refreshments to you, our sugar-boosting, energy-building snacks, coupled with endless amounts of freshly brewed coffee and tea, make sure that you're fully refreshed all day long. But if you'd rather not hit the caffeine all day, we can also make sure a wide selection of green and fruit teas are always available to help you keep your thirst at bay. As for meals, sometimes it's good to leave the meeting room. So if you've got time, why not head to Flemings Restaurant or the Club Bar and Grill and sample traditional Scottish hospitality while enjoying the view of our Championship Golf Course. Don't worry if you're pushed for time, we can always bring you a business buffet and you can work through lunch while working through some delicious dishes. But whatever kind of lunch or evening meal experience you want, you'll find we'll have flexible, tailor-made solutions that cater for you. We can arrange a private room if you want to really make sure the team gets to know each other, or we can give you a separate area of the restaurant. Whatever your tastes, we'll endeavour to give you exactly what you need.

400

acres of grounds for bounding, bonding and building.

Here at The Westerwood Hotel & Golf Resort we've got spectacular grounds stretching off into the distance in every direction. And we aren't afraid to use them. In fact, all 400 wonderful acres are at your disposal for team-building days that will soon have everyone pulling together as one finely honed unit. We will happily accommodate any ideas of your own that you may wish to try out, or you can choose from the smorgasbord of challenges offered by our highly recommended team-building partner. These range from the slightly less daunting themes of giant-inflatable obstacle courses, crazy golf and duck herding, to the somewhat more surreal activities of mini-highland games, It's A Knockout and giant jenga. You can even opt to go off-site to try archery, clay pigeon shooting and off-road driving.
