Event Contract Terms for Wedding Bookings

When holding a private event at a QHotel the following contract terms will apply. If you have any questions or need additional information your hotel contact will be delighted to help.

How do I confirm a booking?

In the first instance request a contract from your hotel contact, then having checked the detail, sign and return the contract to the hotel; once received and signed by the hotel the booking is considered to be confirmed and the contract becomes legally binding. The contract will include these terms, Event Details, applicable rates and health and safety terms.

What guest numbers and accommodation will I be charged for?

The numbers you sign for on the contract are the numbers chargeable, however 28 days prior to the arrival date we will ask you to update your numbers. If these numbers are greater than those originally confirmed this becomes the new chargeable number.

Please note for All Inclusive Packages these are the minimum numbers for your event and can not be reduced.

What happens if my guests need accommodation but I don't want to be responsible for booking or paying for the bedrooms?

We can reserve an allocation of an agreed number of bedrooms at a rate specific to your event.
(please see details on your booking confirmation).

Your guests would call hotels reservations direct to reserve a bedroom and arrange payment. We will also agree with you a date when any bedrooms not already booked are released (usually 4 - 6 weeks prior to arrival).

What will the cancellation charge be if I do not achieve the confirmed numbers or need to cancel the whole event?

If you need to reduce or cancel part or all the event then please let us know as soon as possible. We will try to resell the facilities you reserved to reduce the cancellation charge. If a cancellation charge does apply the charges are as detailed below:

Date of cancellation	Cancellation payable as a percentage of Revenue for all facilities, equipment and ancillary services reserved
In excess of 24 weeks prior to wedding	25% Deposit is non refundable or transferable
Between 24 weeks and 8 weeks prior to the arrival date	50% of the revenue
Between 8 weeks and 2 weeks prior to the arrival date	75% of the revenue
Less than 2 weeks prior to the arrival date	90% of the revenue

What happens if guests don't arrive or leave early?

If this should happen and we can't resell their bedroom or event facilities then a 100% cancellation charge will apply.

What happens if the hotel has to cancel my booking?

In the unlikely event the hotel does cancel, we will refund all deposits, although we will not have any other liability.

The hotel may cancel your booking and terminate the contract in the following situations:

- the hotel or part of it becomes closed due to events beyond our control for example a flood
 - you enter, or we believe you may enter, any type of insolvency proceedings;
- if the booking/attendees or nature of the event may cause public disorder or damage the reputation of the hotel
 - if you fail to abide by any terms of this contract

What payment terms apply?

For weddings we request 25% of the value of the wedding on confirmation as a deposit. A further 25% of the value is due 6 months prior to the wedding and the next 25% is due 3 months prior to the wedding. Payment of the final balance 28 days prior to the wedding. Please note all deposits are non refundable and non transferable.

When can I access my event space and accommodation?

Your access times to event space are detailed on your Event Details, however if you need early access this must be authorised so please discuss it with your hotel contact. Accommodation is available from 3pm on your arrival day and rooms must be vacated by 11.00 am on departure day. On occasions event space access times and check in/out times can be relaxed, subject to availability; your hotel contact will be able to advise.

We may have various bookings and events on the same days as your booking. If you would like to obtain exclusive use of the hotel then this may be arranged, please speak with your hotel contact.

What are the Hotel arrangements for Internet access?

All QHotels' guests receive free internet access. This connection will be using our public network, which will be shared with other users within the hotel.

At most of our hotels, a dedicated / bespoke internet connection is available in a bandwidth range of 10Mbps to 90Mbps for a charge.

Should this be required, the events sales team will be happy to discuss your requirements; but please allow sufficient time for this to be arranged.

Use of the hotel's internet service is subject to availability.

Whilst every effort will be made to ensure that the guest receives an unencumbered service, the hotel cannot be held responsible for restrictions or loss of service due to technical issues arising outside of its control. The hotel's liability with regards to customer internet connectivity will be limited to the amount charged for this service

What happens to items I need delivered to the hotel?

If you need to deliver equipment or material to the hotel please let us know when it is coming and ensure it is clearly labelled with the hotel contact name, your name and your event name.

It should arrive no sooner than 24 hours prior to the event and be collected within 24hrs after you leave.

We cannot accept responsibility for personal items left with us for safe keeping.

What about health and safety, licenses and other statutory requirements?

Details of the terms governing use of the hotel are set out in our Health and Safety Terms which can be viewed on our web site www.QHotels.co.uk, and these terms are incorporated into this contract.

What other legal terms apply?

The contract is entered into by QHotels Group Limited who will sub-contract the services detailed in the contract to the subsidiary company managing the relevant hotel.

Both you and us agree that these terms cannot be varied unless we both agree to the variation in writing and that there are no terms and conditions applying other than the terms set out in this contract.

In addition, we both agree that this contract constitutes the entire agreement between us in respect of the booking and it supercedes, cancels and nullifies any previous agreement between us relating to the booking.

As part of providing these facilities for you it is important that we limit our liability in a couple of ways set out below.

We won't be liable to you for loss of business opportunity, loss of anticipated savings, loss of goodwill or any indirect/ special/ consequential loss or damage howsoever caused, whether it is direct or indirect, and regardless of whether it was foreseeable or we were aware of it in advance.

Overall, our entire liability of any kind under or in connection with this contract, except death, personal injury, fraud or deceit (which are unlimited) won't exceed the value of the contract
